The Incredible Egg Reveals How to Celebrate Easter In Your Personal Entertaining Style
New, On-Trend Egg Recipes and Egg Decorating Techniques Help You Make Easter Your Own

Buffalo, MN (April 9, 2019) – Eggs are never more top of mind than during the Easter season. In fact, last year, demand for eggs at Easter was up 6.2 percent versus 2015<sup>1</sup>. Minnesota’s egg farmers worked diligently to feed this appetite for ever-popular eggs through the 2018 Easter season and beyond, joining with America’s egg farmers to donate more than 40 million eggs to charitable causes across the country.

As Easter 2019 approaches, one thing is for certain: Americans will celebrate with eggs. But, this year, the Incredible Egg is putting a personal spin on celebrations by defining four Easter entertaining styles to express individuality with egg recipes and decorating tips.

“Easter is a special time for families, and America’s egg farmers are proud to provide eggs from their farms to homes across the country during Easter and throughout the year,” says Steve Olson, Executive Director, Chicken and Egg Association of Minnesota (CEAM). “Our hope is that these new recipes and egg decorating tips enhance current traditions and help create new ones.”

#1: Fresh & Modern

Draw inspiration from D.I.Y. blogger Nole Garey of Oh So Beautiful Paper by recreating her Color-Blocked Eggs. These eggs take a page from modern design trends with sophisticated color blocking in rich jewel tones that are sure to elevate any Easter celebration. Consider placing them in a glass bowl for a simple-yet-unique Easter brunch table centerpiece. Learn how to recreate these eggs here.

#2: Globally Inspired

Hunting Easter eggs can work up an appetite! Make sure guests are well-fueled with the Incredible Egg’s new Bunnies’ Tres Leches Mini Cakes. This recipe offers a fun twist on the light and simple Mexican classic. The surprise ingredient? Sweet strawberries. Get the full recipe here.

#3: Quirky & Nostalgic

The 60s are back — and what better way to honor your favorite quirky era than on-trend Tie-Dye Eggs from D.I.Y. blogger Erica Domasek of P.S - I Made This. These eggs are bold, colorful and foolproof to make at home. And you don’t have to stop there — consider extending the bright colors from the eggs to Easter entertaining décor for a fun update to traditional Easter pastels. Get instructions here.

#4: All Natural
